

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the researcher presents the conclusion to answer the statement of the problem and the suggestion for the English teacher, the students and the next researcher.

A. Conclusion

Based on the analysis in the previous section, there are 226 borrowing words in Andy F. Noya Biography. It divides into 56 pure borrowing and 170 naturalized borrowing. It was also found that generally those English borrowing words are adapted into Indonesian language according to the Standard Indonesian Spelling System or EYD. They are changed according to Indonesian rules that exist in Pedoman Umum Ejaan Bahasa Indonesia yang Disempurnakan.

For pure borrowing there are two categories; phonological change, and the similar pronunciation and spelling. It divides into 44 phonological change and 12 the similar pronunciation and spelling. The naturalized borrowing the researcher will analyze specification into two parts which are orthographically and phonologically.

Depart from analyzing the English borrowing words, the researcher can conclude that most Indonesian words are not only from Indonesian language itself but also from another language, like English.

B. Suggestion

Based on the experience of researcher who has experienced during the preparation process of this paper, the researcher gives suggestions to the parties who are related.

1. For the lecturers of morphology

According to the findings that many borrowing words which used in Indonesian language especially Andy F. Noya's Biography. In this biography many Indonesian language as shunted out by the borrowing words. It is important for the lecturers of morphology to introduce about the use of English borrowing words in some selected Indonesian texts, especially biography to Indonesian students. The researcher hopes the native language of Indonesia can be exist although they learn English.

2. For the students

It becomes an obligation to improve and to explore the knowledge of morphology. It is English morphology as the students' subjects. Besides, Indonesian morphology also cause of Indonesian language is our own native language, also because it is related to the finding which is giving the interesting things to know differences between two languages.

3. For further researcher

It is necessary to analyse another borrowing words outside from biography books. Absolutely, the English borrowing words are not only found in biography books, so that the other researcher can be analyse the other rubric of the biography in order to found English borrowing word such as in the novel, article, magazine, and others.
