CHAPTER V
CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter presents some conclusion of the data that has been discussed in the previous chapter. Besides, the researcher tries to give some suggestions related to the result of the analysis.

A.   Conclusion

This study is focused in their educational value. Based on the result, there are some conclusion of this study that can be drawn. First, according to the findings of this study, there are 68 data in this coco movie that include 7 of the 11 types of educational values. There are 20 or 29,4% of honesty, 4 or 6% of brave, 2 or 3% of confidence, 9 or 13,2 of loyalty, 5 or 7,3% of respect, 25 or 37% of love and affection, 3 or 4,4% of kind and friendly.

The most dominant types of educational value in Coco movie is love and affection. It means that Miguel express many feelings with love and affection. Because Miguel, the main character in this movie, grew up in a family that truly shows love and affection to others, love and affection are the most dominant types.

B.   Suggestion

Hopefully, the researcher will gain additional knowledge of educational value from this study and will be able to apply it in teaching activities with their students. This study can assist the reader in understanding the definitions of each type of educational value, as well as understanding and applying educational value in every aspect of their lives. The research will also be used as a reference in English studies, specifically in the literary English department.

In conducting future research, the researcher recommends focusing on specific varieties of educational value theory. It will be a deeper and thorough investigation.