

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

After analyzing the differences of content and literary devices of William Blake's poems, the writer find some point of conclusion and suggestion to the reader.

A. Conclusion

Many students think that poetry is bored, and difficult to understand the meaning of it. So, many students doest not like read literature especially read poem. From this research the writer wants to show that poetry is interesting to read it. Because by understand and poem we can get many lesson and moral message that can take in our live.

After I analysis the content and literary elements of William Blake's poems that found in "Songs of Innocence and "Songs of Experience" collection are popular in his work. I take conclusion that although Blake has produce "Songs of Innocence in 1789. But he continue his work to produce another work to counterpart that collection is "Songs Of experience" in 1794. That collection there are some poem has same title. These poem are The Chimney Sweeper, Holy Thursday, and Nurse's Song. But those poem has different content, stanza, rhyme, etc. beside that when he wrote those poem also influenced by the social, politic, and condition related to that year.

B. Suggestion

In this case the writer wants to give some suggestions to the reader that probably meaningful, because the writer thinks that need an ability to understand the content of the poem. So, these suggestions may useful for the reader to make their selves love the literature, and the lesson from it.

First, study the literary devices of poem about diction, theme, point of view, and moral message of the literature can help the reader to learn and understand about human life. So, read the literary work and try to dig out the experience in it can enrich our life. Because, in the literary work there are many things that we never through about them.

The other suggestions are purposed for the teacher and the students. For the teacher, may be can imitate the literary work, it means that we can give the value of life by the interesting way until make the students enjoy to accept this lesson. For the students, they can enrich the insight by read and pours their idea into the literary work, such as poem, short story, etc.
