

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

An education movie is an interesting movie because it has many moral messages and a good experience that is shown through the story. In the last chapter of this research, the researcher presents the conclusion from the explanation of the personality of Jenny, the effect of puberty to the Jenny and the last is Jenny ways to reach better education. This chapter also consists of the suggestion of researcher.

A. Conclusion

This study focuses on the effect of puberty to the teenager, Jenny in the An Education movie. Before explain about the effect of puberty, the researcher give a clear explanation about the personality of her. The personalities of Jenny in this movie are smart, firm, temperamental, and the last is brave. All of her personalities indicate that Jenny has good characteristic. But as human being, Jenny ever does a big mistake in her life. Before Jenny meets David, she has good personality. But after she meets him the complicated problem often come to her and her attitude change and become temperamental person.

The researcher also gives a clear explanation about the effect of puberty to the Jenny's life. Before she make relationship with a boy, Jenny always do the best in the school and in the house. Jenny is obedient toward her parent and her teacher. But as human being, Jenny as teenager falls in a boy. She makes relationship with him. Unfortunately, after she makes relationship with him. She changes become another person and against her teacher.

There is nothing happens in this world without any causes. So that in order to give a good explanation about Jenny's life, the researcher gives an analysis about Jenny's way to reach better education. Jenny as teenager makes a big mistake in her life. She decides to go out from the school, because she wants to married with her boyfriend. She does not take the examination in the school and in the oxford university. But after she breaks with him, she realize that study is important than love. She study hard all the time and make her come back to her again.

Teenager's life is something wonderful, because they often make something new. Before Jenny makes relationship with him, she never has a problem. But after she decides make relationship with him, she destroys her dream. As good teenager, she realizes that her decision to get married with him is wrong. But she does not want looks like foolish girl, she wakes up from bad dream and start from beginning to reach better education. She believes that when there is will there is away, and she can her dreams to go to Oxford University come true.

B. Suggestion

After completing this research, the researcher makes some suggestions in order to make this research useful in the real life. The suggestions are belonged to the parents and teenagers.

For parents, the researcher hopes for the parents can learn how to be good parent. There are many ways in educating the teenager. Do not ever force the teenage. It has good result. Educating a teenager needs hard work because a teenager is someone who has temperamental characteristic, so that parents must understand about what the teenager willing. It can be discussed together how to make good decision and to finish the problem with good communication. A parent should consider the teenager as like as friendship who always helps them and hear what they want to tell.

For teenagers, hope they can be obedient towards their parents and teachers who always give the best suggestion to reach their dreams come true. As an old people, teacher and parent have many experiences than a teenager, they know what happen if do bad thing. In this movie teach us about how to solve the problem in life without ignoring our dream. A teenager who has good character is important, and always try to do best as long as we life in this world. The most important is when the problem comes to us, try to find the problem solving and focus what we want to get and what we want to be.