CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

16 wishes movie is the interesting movie. This movie has many advantages that useful for this life. This is the last chapter, it concludes the analysis above. The researcher finds some points that can be conclude. The researcher also gives the suggestion to the reader.

A. Conclusion

In this study, the researcher discusses about the teenage as the main character. The researcher interests to analyze more about the teenager. The researcher analyzes the characteristics of Abigail as the main character in 16 wishes movie. This research analyzes the problem and also the pedagogical implication of the 16 wishes movie.

By analyzing the 16 wishes movie, the researcher knows the characteristics of Abigail. As teenager she has the same characteristics with the other teenager. As teenager they have something different from the other teenager. She always does the strange activity in her life.

After analyzing the characteristics, the researcher gets the problem of Abigail. In this research, the researcher knows the problem of Abigail from her daily activity, the way how she communicates with other people. Her problems come from many causes. She has problem that comes from herself, problem that comes from her friends that has the same age, and the problem that comes from her family.

This research also gives the pedagogical implication. We can get knowledge from many ways. People think that they get knowledge from the school. But, in this modern era we can get what we want from many ways. 16 wishes movie give lessons for us. In the school, the students must wear uniform. Do not ever let the students to wear the different clothes. It makes the problem for them. They do not compete to get the best in the lesson, but they compete in wearing the best clothes. In the house, the communication between parent and children is important. Do not ever let your children do everything without sharing to the parent first. As parent, they must understand the needed and the activity of their children.

B. Suggestion

Based on the research above, the researcher makes some suggestion that useful for the life. The suggestion pointed to the parent and children.

For the parent, it is suggested to be careful in educating their children. Do not ever choose the wrong way to educate their children. They must give freedom to their children, but they must also control their children. The freedom means that they still give constrain to them. So they do not get the wrong society.

For the children, it is suggested to the children not to do everything as they want. The researcher hopes, after reading this research they understand about the good society. They must know the condition of her parent. Do not ever think that parent never gives the best for us. They have other minded and have good purpose for us.
