

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

Perfect Match is a very interesting novel because this novel raise social phenomenon. This novel forces us to think, hard, about right and wrong. There are also a lot of moral message and important point to take. In the last chapter, the researcher present the personality of Nina Frost as a mother of Nathaniel, a five-years old boy who get a sexual abusing, the problem of Nina Frost in her son sexual abuse and justice and the last is her effort to solve her problem. This chapter is also consists of the suggestion of researcher.

A. Conclusion

This study focuses on the problem which faces by Nina, especially on her son sexual abuse and justice. However, before explain about the problem faces by Nina, the researcher give clear explanation about Nina's personality. The personality of Nina such as loving, smart, stubborn, impatient, and temperament indicates that Nina has a strong characteristic. But as human being, Nina also ever does a mistake. Actually, Nina has good personality being a mother, wife, and also prosecutors. But after she knows if her son becomes a victim of sexual abusing she cannot just keep silent. That is why she becomes stubborn, impatient and temperamental.

The researcher also gives a clear explanation about the problem faces by the main character. As assistant district attorney who takes over child sexual abusing, it is ironical when her son becomes a victim of sexual abuse.

She has to face the effect of sexual abuse which happens to her child, and also justice. Nina makes her own justice in order to protect her son even the way she takes was wrong. She kills Father Szyszynski as her son sign without make it sure first. And she feels guilty when she knows if she kills the wrong man.

Hence, she has to responsible to her deed for murdering Father Szyszynski. However, Nina allowed every process of justification willingly. Until she feels that she has to fate by the decision of the justification. She was ready to go to jail if the juries verdict it. But, after her plea the juries take an Allen Charge and verdict her free. Then she concerns to recovery her son from the trauma.

B. Suggestion

After completing this research, the researcher makes a suggestion in order to make this study useful in real life. The suggestion is belong to the parents.

For the parents, the researcher hopes that the parent can be more sensitive in every condition of their child. Always be aware because even the close one can hurt our child so badly. And when sexual abuse happens to your family, you have to responsible to fight it in a right way. Because most of the parent keeps silent and just let them go without any act. The parent can learns what should do from this research.
