

CHAPTER VI

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

After analyzing the data and discussing things related to the problem, the researcher then presents conclusion and suggestion.

A. Conclusion

The result of study show that the eleventh grade of language class students of MAN 2 Kediri have problems in writing narrative text. It is reflected through their answer in the test, questionnaire and interview that states five items of writing narrative text namely, content, organization, vocabulary, language use and mechanics.

1. Problems of students in writing narrative text

The students' problems in writing narrative text based on the five items namely content, organization, vocabulary, language use and mechanics. The problems are content Problem is students feel difficult in exploring idea in writing narrative text and also they difficult to write their idea in a good English language. Organization Problem is the students still difficult to determine each generic structure in narrative text especially in writing orientation or introduction in writing narrative text. Vocabulary Problem is the students state that they just have limited vocabularies. Language Use Problem is the students feel difficult in grammar or tenses. Mechanics Problem is the students feel difficult to utilizing capitalization in writing narrative text. And get conclusion that the biggest problem in language use.

2. Students' efforts to overcome in writing narrative text

a. Content Problem

The students make a story in Indonesian language first and then they translate it to English.

b. Organization Problem

The students try to write introduction in narrative story in a simple way then continue toward more complex, they also try to read more often or to understand the introduction in a narrative story in book or Internet.

c. Vocabulary Problem

The students try to translate English text or story or vice versa. They also try to memorize many new vocabularies, watch western film, and ask to the other friend about vocabulary they want to use.

d. Language Use Problem

The students open their grammar books to learn and understanding more about tenses and also sometimes they memorize it.

e. Mechanics Problem

The students try to read a story in many books and they try to understand utilizing capitalization. Look for reference in Internet about the way utilizing capitalization in writing especially in writing narrative story.

3. Teacher's efforts to overcome students' problems in writing narrative text
  - a. The teacher feels that the students' problem in writing narrative text is they have just limit vocabularies.
  - b. Teacher's efforts to overcome students' problem in writing narrative text is the teacher is doing effort adjoining with using dictionary and memorize new vocabularies.

B. Suggestion

Based on the result of the study, some suggestions are put forward for the English teacher of MAN 2 Kediri, the students in general, the teacher and components of this school.

1. For the English students
  - a. The students should do more practice in writing especially in writing narrative text because writing is a skill that will be acquired through practices
  - b. The students must always read any story about narrative story so that they can make narrative story better.
  - c. The students must improve their ability in English Lesson.

2. For the Teacher

- a. The teacher should guide the students in writing, especially for those who are not able to write well.
- b. The teacher should give more explanation about grammar usage in writing story especially in writing narrative text.
- c. The teacher should give some exercises continuously especially in writing narrative text because writing narrative text is a skill which means that the more practice we will get better.
- d. The teacher always give a motivation and use varied technique in teaching in order to make students become more active, get interested in the lesson and do not get bored.