ABSTRACT

Khusnul Muthoharoh. 2014. Cohesion of Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech in APEC Economic Leader Conference. Thesis, English Department, State College for Islamic Studies of Kediri, Advisors: (1) Nur Afifi, M.App. Ling. (2) Burhanudin Syaifulloh, M.Ed.

Keywords: Cohesion, Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech, APEC conference.

Cohesion in discourse is important to know the coherence of discourse. People will easily understand discourse that contains cohesion. In this study, the researcher intends to analyze Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech in APEC conference especially to analyze the types of cohesive devices and the function of cohesive devices used in Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech. It is important to analyze Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech since he used English in his speech at international Conference. This research conducted to know cohesion in Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech. Specifically, it is intended to find out the types of cohesive devices and how cohesive devices in the Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech are used.

The research design in this thesis is descriptive qualitative. The object of the research are transcription of Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's speech. The researcher uses the researcher investigator, it is herself. The researcher is the first key instrument who does all of the process in finishing the thesis. Researcher investigator is the primary instruments for gathering and analyzing data. There are four main analyzing steps: firstly, Identifying the sentences, secondly, Classifying the cohesion of the speech into Halliday and Hassan's theory, thirdly, Explaining the data and the last is Concluding the data.

The result of the research, the writer found the kinds of cohesion. There are three kinds of cohesion which used in the speech, they are reference, conjunction and lexical cohesion. The majority type used in the speech is reference. There are three kinds of reference. They are personal reference, demonstrative reference and comparative reference. Then, the majority used in the speech is personal reference. The words which mostly used in personal reference is 'we'. The frequency of 'we' is 27. It shows the speaker wants to make cooperate with the audiences of the conference. And the majority used in the speech is reference. Then the majority function of cohesive devices in the speech is subject. Thus, researcher suggests that the learners need to study more diligent and give more attention to create text for speech. It can be an additional competency for the students beside their ability.
