

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

At this chapter, the researcher presents and discusses about the summary and the suggestion of the research based on the research findings and discussions previously. This chapter divided into conclusion and suggestion.

A. Conclusion

This thesis analyzes educational values in the novel A Street Cat Named Bob. The purpose of this analysis is to determine the educational values in the novel. The values of education are identified and their interpretation is successfully conveyed to the reader in this context. After the researcher observed and analyzed the novel A Street Cat Named Bob using qualitative descriptive methods, the researcher found 16 out of 18 educational values such as religious, honest, tolerant, disciplined, hard work, creative, independent, democratic, curious, respectful, friendly/communicative, loves peace, likes reading, cares about the environment, social care and responsibility. Meanwhile, there are 2 values that have not been discovered, namely the values of national spirit and love the motherland. Based on the research results, it can be concluded that the novel A Street Cat Named Bob contains many educational values that we can apply in our lives.

B. Suggestion

After completing this research, researchers actually need to provide suggestion. Based on the results of the study, the researchers provide the following suggestions:

1. For readers, the researcher hopes that readers who want to get references regarding educational values can make this research related literature. Therefore, this study also hopes that readers can understand educational values more easily.
2. For students, it is hoped that students will not only use novels for entertainment and fill their break time, but can also use them to learn something, especially educational values. And it is also hoped that they will not only learn and understand the meaning of educational values, but also be able to apply them in their daily activities.

3. For next researchers, the researcher also hopes that next researchers can use this research as related literature and references for their research. At least the researcher also hopes that future researchers can carry out more in-depth development on the same theme. In addition, the researcher suggests the following researchers to use more literature so that this research can be better.
4. For the education, it is hoped that teachers can use the novel A Street Cat Named Bob as a learning resource or as a supporting book in the world of education. Because there are many educational values contained in it so that it can be learned from each story. By reading and studying every character from the characters in the novel A Street Cat Named Bob, more or less it will help educators in instilling educational values in students.
