ABSTRACT

Fitriana, Bella, The Process of English Teaching and Learning for Young Learners in Bilingual Class of SDI Terpadu Al-Azhar Kota Kediri. Kediri, English Department, faculty of education, STAIN Kediri, 2016. Advisor 1 Dr. Mukhammad Abdullah, M.Ag, advisor 2 Dr. Toyyibah, M.Pd

Key Words: Young learners, bilingual.

Bilingual education is a program of education which involves teaching academia content into two language, in native and second or foreign language. In Indonesia, bilingual education has been implementing from the lower stage. Moreover the successful teaching and learning process takes the important place in the successful education. This research is conducted to describe the English teaching and learning process for young learners in bilingual class of SDI Terpadu Al-Azhar Kota Kediri and to find the aspect which make the English teaching and learning process successful. SDI Terpadu Al-Azhar is one of elementary schools which implement bilingual education in Kediri. In this school have the successful English teaching and learning process.

This research uses basic qualitative research design. Interview, Observation guide, and documentation become the instrument in this research. The subject of the research is English teachers and students in bilingual classes.

The result of this research includes the components of teaching and learning process and the aspect of the successful teaching and learning process. The components of teaching and learning process include the material, objective, strategy and evaluation. In this school the components of teaching and learning process are same with other elementary school but one point which makes this school different with other elementary school is the delivery ways of English teachers in the process of teaching and learning. Teachers use various methods and techniques which called by Eclectic method in the process to make the situation in the class not monotonous. Moreover the aspects which make this process successful are the motivated learners, the pedagogical teachers in teaching, and the situation around school which supported.
