

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the researcher would like to conclude the graduating paper based on the problem of the statements.

A. Conclusion

1. Moral Values

There are many moral values that the researcher found in the movie. Kungfu Panda 3 describes many moral values and social problem in human life. Specifically, it describes moral value from character through its characterization. There we will learn about the problem in the movie and we can solve it in real life.

The researcher formulates then pick one of them. For example the researcher take "be yourself". Sometimes we think that become other person is better. For example we admire Bruce Lee. We wear cloth like him, stylish, fast and strong. But our body is not strong enough to be Bruce Lee. Our body will reject it and soon we will getting sick. Just think that become our self is better because we born in this world also with differentiates.

Other example is Leadership. Become leader is not easy. Sometimes we get criticism from other people just like our friend or even our family. Do not be afraid to become a leader. Just remember in mind to become good leader even we get critics. Because critic is part of life to become a real good leader. So, we have to try to be the best as we can do in our life.

And many moral values that we learn from Kungfu Panda 3 movies. Another examples is brave, love and affection, wisdom, and many others. Moreover, to become a good man is we try to figure it out with our self. If we think that is good, we should learn by them.

2. The Most Dominant

After the researcher does their research, there is a dominant moral value in Kungfu Panda 3. The most dominant is cooperativeness. The researcher found that there are 4 frequency of moral value on it. It can be found in the table that the table shows there are 4 frequencies. The next are brave and love and affection followed with 3 frequency. Moreover moral values followed with 2 and 1 frequency.

B. Suggestion

Literary works are not something that boring, but it is something that is interesting to analyze. I suggested the readers to be more attracted to analyze literary work, because literary work is concerned with life and theproblem that we feel in our daily life. From there, we can learn how to solve the problem wisely.

Movie can be the media in order to get something positive such as moral value in Kungfu Panda 3 movie. Based on the conclusion above, we can find many moral values. So, the researchersuggests to the next researcher to use movie as the media of the researcher.

By reading this analysis about the moral value in Kungfu Panda 3 movie through their character and characterization, we can learn how to develop our own attitude and behavior to society. Also, I hope we can be more appreciate to literary works.
