

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

In chapter V, the writer presents some conclusions based on finding and discussion in previous chapter. Additionally, some suggestions are presented in this chapter.

A. Conclusion

A new learning media named Slice of Fairy Tales as the supplementary english reading material was developed by the writer of this research. It was conducted by the researcher for tenth-grade students of senior high school. Based on the finding and discussion, the researcher makes some conclusions as follow:

1. The Slice of Fairy Tales was conducted as supplementary media for tenth-grade students in learning English. It is expected to help students learn individually outside the class. In conducting the product, there were several steps used by the researcher. The researcher used ADDIE model which consists of 5 steps, Analysis, Design, Development, Implementation, and Evaluation. In the first step, the researcher analyzed the student's need using observation sheet, questionnaire items, and interview guidelines. Designing the product was the second step of this research. While the third step was product development. The researcher developed the product based on the design. In the next step, the researcher gave the product to the assessor to be validated. There were several revisions before it was implemented to the students. Then, the product was implemented to the students to ensure the product is easy to be understood. After the product was implemented to the students, the researcher made an evaluation. From the evaluation, the researcher is convinced that the product is ready to be used by the students.

2. The name of the product is Slice of Fairy Tales which focuses on reading material. The product is expected to be used by tenth-grade students as supplementary media in learning English. This supplementary reading material is related to the narrative text material. This supplementary reading material includes the definition, example, vocabulary list, and also the exercises.

B. Suggestion

After concluding the results of this research, the researcher would like to give some suggestions for the next researcher. Firstly, The product is already made in the form of pdf so the students can access this product easily.

1. Students

The product that was developed by the researcher is essential to make the students easier in learning reading because it was designed based on the students' want and need. So the researcher suggests the students to use the product to help them in learning reading.

2. Teachers

Creativity of the teachers is highly required to create a quality learning. Mastery of a variety of learning methods are extremely needed by the teacher at this time. Choose the right learning methods appropriate learning material to be delivered is the first step to achieve the expected learning outcomes.

3. The next researcher.

The researcher suggests the next researcher to conduct research in some English teacher, different level and in other theme. The researcher suggests the next researcher to make reading material in the form of application, so that the product can be more interesting and the students can learn the material easily. The researcher also suggest for the next study to implement this product to the students in order to know how effective or efficient the product is.
