

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter the researcher give conclusion and suggestion. After analyzing Zootopia movie and know the educational values in it, the researcher make conclusion and suggestion based on the analysis above.

A. Conclusion

This Study is focused in their educational values and the implication in education. By analyzing the two statements in this movie, it is expected that the readers can do some educational values and bow to be a professional teacher in their real life. Based on the two research problem that are stated in hunt, the researcher would like to give two conclusions to this study.

1. The researcher find out of the first problem about the educational values that found in “Zootopia” movie, the researcher uses the theory of educational values by Linda Eyre. The researcher concludes that Judy Hopps is great cop. Because she have some educational values that indicate she are great police officer. Her educational values are Honesty, Bravelly, Calm and Patient, loyalty, Love and Affection, and Sensitivity.
2. The next discussion is about the implication of educational value of Judy Hopps to society in Zootopia. There are some implications of the movie in education. The implications above are the proofs that educational values of Judy Hopps has a good motivation for a people how to be a make a change attitude. This movie also inspired the readers to have a good value especially in education.

B. Suggestion

Based on the research findings that have been done, various suggestions as an attempt to examine the value of education in a work literature better is as follows:

1. For the teacher

For the teacher this movie can be a good media for teacher to teach. Other hand, teacher can transform the positive value for students. Teacher can transform the values through this movie.

2. For the students

For the students, this movie is a superb recommendation for students. Students can take in the nice values which show in this movie. Honesty, Bravely, Calm and Patient, loyalty, Love and Affection, and Sensitivity are the positive value to make an example by students. That value will make students realize what the core is it.

3. For the further researcher

For the further researcher, the researcher recommends to other researchers that they should do some related researches in deeper and better techniques. Positive criticism is needed to make the next study better.

4. For literature lovers

This research can be used as a reading alternative to add insight into the appreciation of the literature hopefully included in a work loaded with values sublime that can be an example in the world of education. Then can be done further research on literary works another popular and educational theme.