CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

After reviewing and explaining some terms relating to direct and indirect request strategies in City of Ember movie, in this section the researcher presents two parts, those are conclusion and suggestion.

A. Conclusion

After the researcher analyzes some types of direct and indirect request strategies in City of Ember movie, the researcher found some data of direct request strategies, those are mood derivable, want statement and obligation statement. In this research, the researcher found one type of indirect request strategies namely query preparatory.

In this research, the researcher found data of direct request strategies more than data of indirect request strategies. The total data of direct and indirect request strategies in City of Ember movie are 77. One kind of direct request strategies, mood derivable, occurs in 68 occurrences in this movie. Other kind of direct request strategies, want statement, occurs in 4 occurrences. The other kind of direct request strategies, obligation statement, occurs in 1 occurrence. Moreover, in indirect request strategies, there is query preparatory. In City of Ember movie, query preparatory occurs in 4 occurrences.

The researcher found some linguistic form. Imperative in direct request strategies are more dominant than other linguistic form that used in this movie. Some linguistic forms found in this research are imperative, imperative + please, you have to, I want, I need or you need, let's, can you, could you, can we.

The result of this research shows that the most frequent requests strategies that always used by speaker or requester in conversation in City of Ember movie is direct request strategies, especially mood derivable.

B. Suggestion

Based on the explanation above, the researcher wants to give some suggestions to next researcher, the readers and society. Hopefully, this suggestion can give contribution in some aspects, especially in education.

The suggestion for next researcher is that they should analyze and classify the direct and indirect request strategies based on some theories of request strategies because there are many theories that related to direct and indirect request strategies. The next researcher may choose one good theory of request strategies for their analysis.

The suggestion for the readers is that they should study all types of direct and indirect request strategies to understand them. After they understand the types of request strategies, they should apply or practice the request strategies in their daily communication.

The suggestion for society is that they should watch movie as an entertainment in their life. They should choose a good movie because movie is not only as an entertainment, but also as a medium to get knowledge, included direct and indirect request and education in their life.
