

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter the writer will describe about two topics they are the conclusion from describing in chapter IV and suggestion.

A. Conclusions

From the result of analysis that is explained in the chapter IV, in this chapter will be conclude two points. All of conclusions are the main characters and the characteristic of main characters reflected toward in Shakespeare's Macbeth.

The first conclusion is the main characters in Macbeth's drama. Based on the story of drama and the dialogues that appear in it, it can be concluded that there are six main characters. Those main characters are; Macbeth, Lady Macbeth, Banquo, Macduff, Malcolm and the Witches.

The second conclusion is the characteristic of main characters in Macbeth' drama. It can be mentioned and describe as follow:

1. Macbeth

He is illustrated as the general Scottish army who has great ambition and unfaithful with Duncan as king of Scotland, moreover he wants to kill the king. It happens when he wants to be a king of Scotland. Macbeth realizes that his ambition is too great, it makes him to do something that he knows is wrong and will against everything that block away him to be a cruel man but he is also drawn a loyal hero of kingdom. It happens when Macbeth killing Macdonwald because he hates traitors.

Macbeth is complex character: imaginative and sensitive person. It happens when he recoils at first from the murder of Duncan, even though he is very ambitious to be king. He is aware and understands that crime begets crime. From his deep heart he is very loyal with Duncan as his king, but he is influenced by his ambition.

2. Lady Macbeth

Lady Macbeth is illustrated as a gentle woman who is faithful, devoted to her husband and a cruel lady. It happens when she convinces Macbeth to kill the king. While Macbeth is uneasy to kill the king, she tells him that there is nothing to worry because she will help him to kill the king.

She is also more ambitious than her husband. It happens when she will have to push Macbeth into murder, because at first time she has a plan to kill the king. She hopes after the king dies, her husband can be replaced to be king of Scotland.

3. The witches

They are drawn as a symbol of evil and they are as the fortune tellers who always give prophecy to their follower.

4. Banquo

He is illustrated as the general of the Scottish army. He is smart and a clever man. It is shown that he always looks at the real sides of the things and life, rather like Macbeth always look at the imaginary side of like.

5. Macduff

He is as the nobleman of Scotland. He is a hero and also the truth defender too.

6. Malcolm

He is illustrated as king's son. He is a wise prince and loyal to his kingdom. He also a brave man. He takes fast any resolution on everything.

B. Suggestion

The researcher has three suggestions that may be useful for the growth of literature, especially in analyzing literature particularly in drama. The three suggestions are purposed for: University, Students and next researcher.

1. University

In this university can provide many books about literature, especially in drama that makes students easily in learning literature.

2. Students,

They can read many sources about literature or analyzing literature to add their knowledge about literature and add their experience about life or anything from drama that they read.

3. Next researcher,

The researcher aware that this thesis is not complete. There are many lacks of sources or something else. It is so far from completeness. So, he hopes that the next researcher will be complete this thesis to be better and more complete.
