ABSTRACT

Hermawati, Luky, 2015. Moral Values Found in Mamoud Darwish's Books of Poems. Thesis, Tarbiyah, English Department, Faculty of Education, The State College for Islamic Studies of Kediri. Advisors: (1) Dra. Nurul Ain, M. Pd (2) Muhammad Muhyidin, M. Pd

Key words: Poem, Moral Value, Deed

Recently, moral level in Indonesia is decrease. Bad association, lack of moral education, western style influence, and bad using of information technology is influencing Indonesians that causing the decreasing of moral application in Indonesia. Because of that, Indonesians need studying moral more. One medium contained moral values is poem. Parents, teachers, or students themselves can choose good poems that contain good morals. After getting moral values from poems, students and poem's readers can apply the moral studied in their life. War in Palestine is ongoing dispute. That is an interesting news. Intention of many people is centralized to it. Someone is called a good person when he has good attitude. The researcher chooses Mahmoud Darwish because he is Palestinian, so he feels directly the situation there. The researcher chooses the four selections poems of Mahmoud Darwish's poems because of the good form, content, and figure of speech of the poems. The researcher wants to explain the moral values found in Mahmoud Darwish's books of poems.

The researcher uses descriptive qualitative research to analyze moral values in four of Mamoud Darwish's poems in Mahmoud Darwish books of poems. The researcher uses paraphrase method to uncover the content of Mahmoud Darwish's poems and the moral values found in it. After finishing the paraphrases, the researcher gets the unity of intact story from the poems. Then, the researcher concludes moral values existed in Mahmoud Darwish's books of poems through keywords that available on the poems based on Nawawi's theory and explain them in paragraph.

After the researcher observe with discussion about moral values found in Mahmoud Darwish's books of poems, finally the researcher got the paraphrasing of each poem and the moral values found in it. The first poem tells about the sadness of Palestinian people because of wars and siege from the Israeli. The second poem tells about desire of Palestinian to make everything lost to begin again. By the playing of Ismael's lute and Ismael's song, they hope to the lute to accede their hope as a phoenix that can be born again from its ashes. The third poem tells about a Palestinian man who give up because of his personal problem and social problems related to the war. The last poem tells about the place of situation of increasing worship and defending the rightness. As the result, the researcher found moral values that included in some moral subjects. The moral subjects found in four of Mahmoud Darwish's poems are trustworthiness, faithfulness to God, patience, resignation, honesty, thanking to God, optimism, and repentance. The moral values that found in poem "A Gentle Rain in a Distant Autumn" are in moral subject: trustworthiness, faithfulness to God, patience, resignation, thanking to God, optimism, and repentance. The moral values that found in poem "The Lute of Ismael" are in moral subject: trustworthiness, faithfulness to God, patience, resignation, honesty, optimism, and repentance. The moral values that found in poem "As Fate Would Have It" are in moral subject: trustworthiness, faithfulness to God, patience, resignation, honesty, thanking to God, optimism, and repentance. The moral values that found in poem "Truce with the Mongols by the Holm Oak Forest" are in moral subject: trustworthiness, faithfulness to God, patience, resignation, honesty, thanking to God, optimism, and repentance.
