

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the writer would like to conclude the graduating paper based on the problem of the statements.

A. Conclusion

1. Moral values in Indonesian fables

There are some moral values found in Elephant and mouse, ostrich and cassowaries, advice grandfather frog wise, a brave dwarf elephant, and finally squirrel's child is cured fables, those are: a) kind hearted, b) love and affection, c) forgiveness, d) wisdom, e) thankfulness, f) bravery, g) obeying parent, h) patient, i) cooperativeness.

2. Characters building are presented in Indonesian Fable through reflection of fable's moral value. Children's character that can be built through Indonesian Fable are:

- a. Kind hearted moral value can build social care character.
- b. Cooperativeness moral value can build hard work and creative character.
- c. Love and affection moral value can build friendly/communicative and tolerance character.
- d. Thankfulness moral value can build rewarding achievement and religious character.
- e. Patient moral value can build love peace character.

- f. Wisdom moral value can build social care character.
- g. Bravery moral value can build social care character.

B. Sugestion

1. Fable is one of media to build children's character. Fable can make children are interested to read. They will find many stories that have many moral values. Animals character in fable show character of human in reality. Therefore, children's character can be built by animals character.
2. Moral values are important to human life. It is because teenager and children get moral crisis in this era. Therefore, parents, teacher and all of societies must educate young generation to be good ones. Someone that has good morality will be success in his life.