

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, After discussion the result of the analysis the researcher will try make conclusion and make suggestion in the last chapter of this research based on the analyzed above.

A. Conclusion

After the researcher observe with discussion about “ An Analysis Of Semi Yusuf Song’s Lyric Based On Islamic Moral Values “ the researcher give a conclusion that can be explained below. Finally, from the result of researcher after paraphrasing the researcher found several moral values in Semi Yusuf songs there are Eid song, The Cave Of Hiro, You Came To Me, He Is There, Make Me Strong.

1. Eid song, in this song about Eid celebration. Moral values that existed in there is about love, helpfull and forgive other people. Happy receive Eid celebratation.
2. The Cave Of Hiro, in this song about love are given from God to the servants so that people become a better person Moral values existed in there is about thanks to God. Invites to do good as an expression of our gratitude to God. We are grateful that God will increase the pleasure that he has given. We shall be grateful that we got more reward from him. Gratitude in daily life it is necessary to get a quiet life.

3. You Came To Me, in this song about help from God always is there. Moral values that existed in there is about optimist, and faithful. Today, in living everyday life reserve the optimism is not easy to give up and despair. Optimistic habit can lead us to be successful. Faith and trust to be better. As psychophysical creature, human beings in achieving prosperity of his life, not only need things that are material, but also need of security, peace, tranquility and safety.
4. He Is There, in this song about God always be around us. Moral values that existed in there is about optimist, tawakal to God. Optimistic soul is great soul with positive thinking. For those who have it, life has a lot of opportunities, not narrow. Tawakal are otherwise called pessimistic, which is a narrow view things, all difficult, and many obstacles. In contrast to the optimistic souls, life is felt give hope.
5. Make Me Strong, in this song about patient waiting something. moral values that existed in there is about patient, strong and optimist.. The patient soul is soul is owned by the patient person. A patient person is a person who faces life with the soul of patience. In life, patient usually perceived as the attitude of avoiding the rush, which is acting prudently identical with the action taken slowly.

B. Suggestion

According to researcher and discussion above, the reseacher wants to give some sugesstion:

1. To composers

Create one song not only gets character as amusement and only get gain, but gives meaningful song to give inspiration for benefit and its audience. A thing that needs to be remembered for composer, that song is not just as amusement but should have education element or contained other values in it, so it will be useful for its audience

2. For society

Society as benefit of music and song necessarily begins smart and critical to choose song that have quality in its lyric. It is expected that they able to translate the meaning that consist in one song. So, society has critical and forward patterned thinking so gets ascendant to society mental state.

3. For next reseacher

It is expected for getting to look for more song again to be analyzed which has moral values, so in the next will be found different meaning description that existed in itslyric, and get a new knowledge for societ
