

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter present the conclusion and the suggestion from finding research which is done by the researcher.

A. Conclusion

Based on the research, the writer has a conclusion from the analysis. There are some points that show the conclusion. The point are :

1. The researcher found five intrinsic elements that have analyzed, they are theme, character, setting, plot and point of view. The theme of this movie is about religion and dominance. The character of this movie are Balian, Godfrey, a town priest, Tiberias, Sybilla, Guy de Lusignan, Raynald of Chatillon, Balwin, Salahudin. Setting of place is In France and Jerusalem. Part of plot are exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, resolution. Point of view is about Balian's talking.
2. The researcher presents ten basic humanity value, but in this movie there are only six humanity value which the main character has. Those are achievement, power, security, conformity, benevolence, and universalism. The humanity value of achievement can be seen when Balian wanted to make a new Jerusalem city. Power can be seen when Balian tried to maintain Jerusalem. Security can be seen when Balian wanted to give rescue to his wife and when Balian disagreed with Mr. Uskup's suggestion to leave Jerusalem. Conformity can be seen when Balian killed a town priest. Benevolence can be seen when lead a district and help them to find water. Universalism can be seen when Balian gave his horse to a servant and when Balian wanted to keep the peace all religions in Jerusalem.

3. The main character in terms of humanity values, which is the aspect of psychological approach; self actualization and the fully functioning person are as follows; self actualization of Balian when Balian disagreed with Godfrey to go to Jerusalem but after he known that his wife in the hell, he wanted help his wife and when Balian helped the people find out water in Ibelin. Balian as the fully functioning person when Balian believes that Salahudin will give terms to Balian (Trust feelings). Besides, he also has creative thinking and brave when Balian prepare the soldiers Jerusalem before Salahudin come in the Kingdom aware that humans do not stay safe all the time (Creative).

B. Suggestion

The result of this research, hopefully it can build the good character for us and always care each other in social life. The researcher hopes this research gives the knowledge for the researcher and the reader

For the researcher, this research can help the researcher to find out the alternative way of learning value mostly humanity value from Kingdom of Heaven movie. This can be a motivation and reference to study Indonesian literature. It can give the understanding about kinds of the humanity value discovering and influence of the main character in the movie.

To the readers, this research can influence the reader to have more humanity value in their life. The readers are able to take the point that what can do in their social life. It can make the person to more care and obey the rules in doing something for their life. To give a new perspective to use the humanity value in the daily life.