Appendix 2 Film Transcript of Orion and the DarkB. Appendix 1.2 Film Transcript of Orion and the Dark (2024)

- Orion : The school counselor told me to document my fears in some form. That's why i keep a sketchbook. It's my way of trying to manage my issues.
- Orion : Take page 14, for example. My fear of clogging the toilet... and flooding the whole entire school. Oh, thank God.
- Orion : Getting packed like sardines into a rusty school bus with 30 other kids speeding down the highway? Sounds like a traffic accident waiting to happen. I should know. I've studied the actuarial charts.
- Orion : This cartoon is completely unrealistic. Recyclable items do not have eyes or personalities.
They do not go on adventures. I don't appreciate being condescended to.
- Orion : Real life is way more complicated than that. And reincarnation is wishful thinking. Wow! For plastic containers and people.
In real life, when you're dead, you're dead.
- Orion : I try to imagine nothing. This is black and silent, not nothing. Blackness and silence is something. Nothing is perhaps the one unimaginable thing.
- Orion : You know what I mean. Dark is simply the absence of light. Not a stupid cartoon character.
- Dark : Here, check it out. I even made a little movie about myself. You know, to offer a different perspective on darkness. It's kind of a passion project.
- Dark : Listen, I didn't ask to be a supernatural entity that evokes dread and despair. I'm just a regular guy trying to do my job.
But people always pick on me. Truth is, almost everyone is scared of me. Or hates me. Or thinks I'm evil. Some people think I'm nothing. Hurts a guy.
- Dark : It's just that so much of how you see yourself is through the eyes of others, you know?
I just wish people would give me a chance.
- Orion : I know how you feel. A lot of kids at school pick on me, too. Richie Panici, Davis Jensen, Howard Helstrom, Isaac Pill, Rebecca Warren. She moved, but she still sends me threatening letters on my birthday.
Which is sort of nice.
- Orion : I just wanna not be afraid anymore
- Orion : Okay, I'll go! Mr. Dark?
- Dark : Wait! One night could change everything! I got 24 hours with this kid.
We help him overcome his fear of the dark and all his nightly screaming, and all that interference with your jobs just goes away.
- Dark : What the heck was that? Kid, you're either extremely disturbed or extremely creative.
- Dark : But it wasn't a complete disaster. You know why?
Because you looked your fears in the eye and showed them what's what! Okay, let's try that again.
- Orion : Dark, you're not listening. I didn't overcome my fears. I'm still just as scared as ever. I know for a fact you're wrong, and I can prove it.
I sincerely doubt that.
- Orion : I guess. I don't know. I'm just kind of riffing here. Is that a bad idea?
- Orion : I'm starting to believe you.
- Orion : I think we're getting a little off-track here.
Dark is great. He has so many wonderful characteristics.

Orion : Wait, let me finish. So, in conclusion, thank you. Thank you for performing these humble, thankless tasks, in order to make Light-filled Day great again.

Dark : Guys, don't make me do this by myself, please.
We all need to work together.
We're... we're friends.

Orion : Of course I did. You're my friend. I was afraid I lost you

Orion : Thank you, Hypatia.
Hang on, Dark. I'm coming!

Orion : Dark! Now let's get you out of here.

Dark : It's been a pleasure knowing you, Orion.

Dark : That's some nice work, kid.

Orion : Ah, sure. You'll see dark. I mean, I won't look exactly like this. But you'll see me in new ways. Ways that are even better.

Orion : Terrified.
But I'm going anyway.

Dark : You've got a good father there.
