

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter is the last chapter of this research. This chapter presents some conclusions of the data that has been discussed in the previous chapter. Besides, the researcher tries to give some suggestions related to the result of the analysis. This study is conducted to the moral value in UP movie.

A. Conclusion

This study is focused in their moral value. By analyzing the two statements in this movie, it is expected that the readers can do moral value in their real life. Based on the two research problem that are stated in hunt, the researcher would like to give two conclusions in this study. The researcher find out of the first problem about the moral value that found in “Up” movie, the researcher uses the theory of moral value by Linda Eyre. The researcher concludes that Fredricksen is a loyal, affection, self-discipline, respect, bravery, peace ability person, and Russell is have some moral values are self-reliance, honesty and love, bravery, peace ability, kind and friendly. The next discussion is about the most dominant appearing in the “Up” movie.

Based on the findings, the most dominant of moral value is loyalty that found 6 dialogs, self-reliance 2 dialogs, honesty 1 dialog, love 5 dialog, affection 1 dialog, self-discipline 3 dialogs, respect 2 dialog, bravery 3 dialogs, peace ability 2 dialog, kind and friendly 2 dialog.

B. Suggestion

Hopefully, from this research, the researcher gets additional knowledge about moral value and be able to apply them in the teaching learning activities with their students. For the readers it is hoped that the study can enrich the knowledge about literature especially on value. It expected that after read this study, the readers would like to understand more about value that can get and found in daily life.

For teacher it is hope that the study and also the movie can enrich knowledge how to be good teacher and good person. This movie can help teacher to expand the way to teach children. And apply the value in teaching learning process. For further researcher it will open occasion for the next researcher to conduct further analysis on future. It will enrich the future researcher field of study. It hope in future research can expand other analyze perhaps the moral value in this movie.