Margaret Thatcher's effort as a prime minister in order to improving country's condition to be better and safe country's sovereignty.

B. Suggestion

Based on the result of the research, the researcher would give some suggestions for the further researcher. The readers, who interested to research figure's biography, it can use biopic movie and add other references to support the research. Other references such as biography books, article journals, and movie's script.

This research also probably for the reader's reference of research figure especially Margaret Thatcher or other figures that lead a country. One of analyzing this research is matching with Juliet Karbo's theory. For further study, it might be analyzing figures by other theory such as Elizabet Martinez and Arnaldo Garcia neoliberalism theory and Michael O'Neill's defense theory to completing research.

After doing this research, the researcher recognizes that there are still many weakness. This research still neds deep attention. Hopefully, this research can be reference for the further research in same topic about analyzing figure's biography especially a leader.
