

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter contains conclusion of the research and the suggestion of the writer in this study. The writer presents the conclusion in a short description about this research and the result analysis related to the problem of the study. The writer also gives suggestion concerning the research finding.

A. Conclusion

The focus descriptions of this study is strategies of English teacher to solve students' boredom at MAN Purwoasri. Those are very effective applied toward the students who had taught by the English teacher. This following are the strategy that used by the English teacher:

1. The teacher used active learning method. The teacher some active learning method like English conversation, group discussion, and games.
2. Using media and facility. The teacher used the media and facility to support the learning English. The examples of media are picture, LCD projector, laptop, and book material. While, the facilities are language laboratory, internet, etc.
3. Closed with the students. The teacher must close with the students in order to understand what the students want.
4. Give motivation. The teacher places herself as the students' parent when they are in the school, so it is important to make the students have spirit to study.
5. Humor in the classroom. The teacher should create a humor to make the situation of learning English is enjoying but focus on the lesson.

B. Suggestion

Based on the conclusion above, the writer can see that the English teacher is the important in the teaching and learning process of learning English. The writer has suggestion to the teacher and the students.

For the English teacher, the strategies that used to teach are better and always continue to create the strategy that do not make the student become bored in learning English. Do not forget to give motivation directly to the students in order to they have spirit to learn English language.

For the students, should change their assumed that English language is difficult. They should also motivate themselves to learn English, so the English is not boring subject anymore. The important thing, is the students must improve their achievements by do study and exercise more and more every times.

