In this chapter, the researcher sums up her study by presenting the conclusions of the research result based on research question and the purpose, the researcher also give the explanation and practical implication of the research result that have been found. in agreement of research significant, the researcher adds some suggestion or recommendations based on the conclusion to the people which are related and relevant to this study.

A. Conclusions

The researcher observed the video of The Oprah Winfrey Show with Celine Dion as the guest star. The researcher downloaded the video in the YouTube that had divide become three parts. The researcher analyzed the type of positive politeness an the reason why the positive politeness is used by write down the script of the utterances in to the table that had been prepared by the researcher before she held the research and analyze the video of talk show She found that in the talk show uses all type of politeness strategies but almost of the used positive politeness strategy. The researcher also having the same researcher that have almost same title of them. The researcher formulated the research by two research question there are what are the politeness strategies are used in The Oprah Winfrey Talk Show with Celine Dion as the guest star, And how it applied in the talk show. The results of the analysis are presented as follow:

1. The researcher found 35 utterances that containing positive politeness strategy used in The Oprah Winfrey Talk Show with Celine Dion as the guest star there are bald on record strategy 5,7 % (2 utterances), positive politeness 80% (28 utterances), negative politeness strategy about 8,6% (3 utterances) and the last id off record strategy about 5,7 % (2 utterances) those percentages also showed that positive politeness become the most common strategy that is used in The Oprah Winfrey Show with Celine Dion as the guest star. The researcher also concludes that why positive politeness becomes the most common used because the talk show is an easy listening talk show, showing the hospitality and the friendliness of Oprah as the host. So, it will be easy to find positive politeness here, and the relationship between the guest and the host is good and bring a good atmosphere in the talk show even though there was also talked about Celine sadness in her life.

2. The researcher found how this politeness strategies applied in the talk show. The first strategy is bald-on record, this strategy is used when the speaker want to express her answer shortly but full of expression. The second strategy is positive politeness, this strategy is used when they want to express the good answer and responding the opposite answer with a good face and meaning. The third strategy is negative politeness, this strategy is used when the speaker giving negative face even tough between speaker and do not have bad problem before. The last is off record strategy, this strategy is used when the speaker uses implicit meaning about the utterances, she does not say directly about the meaning of utterances.

B. Suggestion

This study purpose is to find the types of positive politeness that commonly used in the talk show, and the reason why they use the positive politeness, In agreement of those purposes the researcher give some suggestion This suggestion is to enrich the study of politeness strategy, those who are interested in studying of politeness they can use the other theories from Lakoff's, Leech's and Scolon's the researcher also suggest to the next researcher if they want to conduct the research, they must be get a good instrument of the video, the quality and the sound of the video because it will make the researcher easy to conduct the research.

SCRIPT OF *THE OPRAH WINFREY SHOWPart 1

Oprah : Celine Dion is here...!! The best singer with 185 milion albums sold.

Part 2

Oprah : Wow Celine Dion will be singing I was there for the beginning when the show first started in Vegas. I cannot believe it's been five years.

Celine : I cannot believe either yes time flies very quickly

Oprah : In the tape you say it's been a journey, what has that journey been like for you?

Celine : Journey has been exciting

Oprah : exciting

Celine : demanding

Oprah : demanding? It's heavy right...heavy right

Celine : Yeah, it's hard. It was very hard but it it gave me an opportunity first of all to be to work and to do to show every night when amazing people - Franco Dragone has created an amazing show and Beyond revolving it evolved it has evolved since the beginning and I'm amazed because I thought I was the first one to think that night after night maybe it'll be very very difficult but it gave me as well in a way a stability in a comfort zone, like even though you might think how do you did it night after night it can be like more angry something it did not why like you know that the crowd and the people there is different every night to start with yeah nights you don't feel so good you go on they give you the energy you need every night that the show started it was kind of a new, new day

Oprah : Mmmm a new day?

Celine : Oh it was appropriate for me it was natural I had to say it yeah was it kind of a new day but I cannot believe that five years has passed by it's amazing

Oprah : I know, when I was there the baby was in the crib.

Celine : I count the birthdays front of my son.

Oprah : Really?

Celine : Yeah, I don't come to the shows or I don't count the years as I say two more birthdays,

Oprah : Two more birthdays?

Celine : One more birthday...

Oprah : Though was it was there a while to you boy is his hair long.

Celine : No...!!

Oprah : No...

Celine : Because dad doesn't have any.

Oprah : Yes, and so dad is just gonna let him grow it until..

Celine : That's right. Compensating you know we're adjusting ourselves.

Oprah : So, when you first started I remember you were saying it was so great because it allowed you this was you're going to the office going on stage every night go to sing you could be back with the baby.

Celine : You know, how mommies are you know we feel we want to do our job it's our passion we need to work, we want to work we we love what we do but we love our kid tremendously our kids tremendously and we but there's I'm pretty sure it's among all of us pretty much we feel bad and guilty sometimes to take time for us to go to the office for example and there sometimes I couldn't sing faster and I was singing I was trying to sing as fast as I could sometimes some nice and give the applause for the end don't applaud you know so I can't go home to my baby.

Oprah : Well this is what I love in this month Oh magazine you say because if we do an aha moment because I love AHA when you have a moment where you realize, maybe they didn't leave it for me is so fantastic because you can't have an aha unless you already knew it you know an AHA is remembering what you already knew.

Celine : Like kind of like gotcha

Oprah : Gotcha

Celine : Kind of thing.

Oprah : Right, so the most important thing you say you've learned is that my life is so much more than show business that my inner voice is a lot stronger than my singing voice.

Celine : Mmm-hmm

Oprah : I love that my inner voice is a lot stronger than my singing voice I thought you must got one powerful inner voice you say when people come to me and say I want to be just like you the only thing I want in life is to sing I tell them this please don't make your career your life let it be your passion let it bring you pleasure but don't let it become your identity you are so much more valuable than that.

Celine : Absolutely.

Oprah : Wow....

Celine : I have to say that life has given me the opportunity my loved ones my husband my family my child my life in general has given me an opportunity tremendous gift for me to see clearer and clearer with time maturity is an amazing wonderful thing.

Oprah : Isn't it.

Celine : It's unbelievable.

Oprah : Yes...

Celine : You know people focus something on you no maturity gravity.

Oprah : Yeah

Celine : Forget about it no way maturity stability strength focus exactly know what we want you know that what it says is that before singing was my life my vocal cords used to lead the way now I'm in charge.

Oprah : Wow... there's a North Georgia college freshman named Brittany Hal Mester who found out that Celine was coming to her pose she started help me meet Celine campaign hmm around campus she posted this flyer asking fellow students teachers even total strangers to write in and help her get a seat in our audience so this email right here is from Daniel he wrote dear Oprah there's this girl Brittany I just met her and all I know is that she's a huge Celine Dion fans. She just might be the hottest redhead I've ever seen when she found out about this show she let everybody know and can't stop talking about it so Britney's efforts paid off Celine helped us deliver this surprise, take a look!

Oprah : Wow...

Celine : Arse it's the hottest redhead ever.

Oprah : I know...

Celine : I'd very nice meeting you

Fans : Too...

Celine : Just a little beautiful everybody seems to be your friend.

Fans : Aakh.....

Oprah : So today Celine fans are in the driver's seat because Celine is taking their requests Brittany it's your big moment. What's your request?

Fans : I drove all night.

Oprah : You got.

Oprah : Coming up, a Celine fan finds out why she's really here an emotional request next and later Celine debuts her new song for the first time, right here!

Part 3

Oprah : Wow that's pretty special.

Celine : You know when we go out oh it's still like we're very normal people but we have an extravagant life it's we don't have a normal life and Rene Charles is used to that we're his parents and he's used to live this way but when we go out every time I always noticed that he knows people recognize me and that suddenly it's different it's different as a normal mom in a way because normal people don't go on TV they're not known people don't stare at them like oh my god this is a Celine Dion but that type of thing but my son always noted that, thank you but for me it's like he's got to share his mom and his dad most of the time when we go out.

Oprah : Mmm-hmm

Celine : So right away it's it's it is different like I understand that's why he doesn't want to go out a lot I noticed that he never we always wants to stay home and I said what do you two just want let's go play bowling and go to the movies or let's go play or golf or something so he found a trick like let me stay home so like this I can have my both parents just for me.

Oprah : That's great that's great we have more fan surprises here and you know it's amazing that you you were doing this sort of trying to imitation but people do they go into a thing when they see you.

Celine : Into a thing

Oprah : Into a thing Celine Dion is honoring her fans by singing their favorite hits one woman in our studio audience is about to find out why she's really here this is a very special request for Celine, take a look!

Oprah : All right Sarah, Sarah we're gonna do it just for you

Fans : There are, may I come down and meet with you.

Celine : Very nice to meet you you're as much. Sara I lost my dad too and you know what he's part of my life like he's part of yours and you know he'll be just fine and if you allow me I would love to sing a little bit of that song for you just for you today.

Oprah : Next one of the hardest things Celine ever had to do.

Oprah : Wow...

Celine : Oh my gosh.

Oprah : That video was given to us by Celine's husband the name of our most personal performance ever he tells us that you you haven't seen this before.

Celine : How'd you get through it who well you just saw

Oprah : Yeah

Celine : That was talking more than singing obviously I felt very bad for the people who were there that night to hear me sing because obviously nothing came out that night oh but they sure haha

Oprah : Yeah

Celine : Me like open my soul they saw my pain and isn't that what it's all about as well yeah you mean you she once you start to be an open book and you share everything with people you you you you you through music you you know you feel the pain and the joy and the good moments and the good times and the bad ones but I still felt bad because they I think they wish to hear their songs and all the show was probably much like that well how would I need it to go on for my dad I wanted to do to just for him when I finished a show I collapsed backstage yeah

Oprah : Yeah

Celine : ah Fame but I'm happy that I did it yeah

Oprah : Where's the best advice your father ever gave you I mean if you have a good relationship with your father that never leaves you what is the best

Celine : I don't remember him giving me advice. I just remember him giving me standing ovations for every single song that I was doing really my dad was my biggest fan ever he loved me so I love this whole family obviously but the fact that I was having success for him it was the family was having success

Oprah : Mmm-hmm because it's 13 of you

Celine : 14

Oprah : 14? okay OTP add one more yeah we always think smaller but you can keep wedding 14 and and that's why when I started to show business I never failed that you know because sometimes I caught myself saying I'm the luckiest one in the family I could do it professionally we were all the luckiest one in the family and that's why the the maturity comes today and I see better

Oprah : Yeah...

Celine : I the success that I have and why I'm doing here I'm they're all singing with me that success is all of us it's my parents it's their hard work it's all the standing ovation they gave me on the kitchen table when I was singing for them I was in the kitchen there they were applauding me like you do today it was my biggest joy and I'm just transmitting this to continue that love that we've received all our lives so dad was amazing just to give me that strength to keep going and going and he loved running so hard and so much and thank you for sharing that footage I mean it's my first time I'll talk to you after the show.

Oprah : Well we're celebrating with Celine's fans today. My friend Gail, I don't think there is a bigger fans. She is a huge fans plays her Ipad Song so loud and thinks she is you can sing.

Celine : And you still wanted me on your show?

Oprah : So, here is flashback from the rod trip, me took together you all remember this!

Oprah : Well, not all of Celine's biggest fans are women, where's Sun Deep, Sun Deep Hii!! How are you?

Fans : Good, How are you

Oprah : I understand you're a huge Celine's fans

Celine : Hi Sun Deep...!! You're a beautifull name

Oprah : Yes...

Fans : Thank you... thank you...

Oprah : Take a look at! How we found out about you...

Oprah : So, this special just for you!

Celine : I've never heard a name like yours, just for you Sun Deep.

Oprah : Celine's fans have been waiting for three years, next she's gonna sing brand-new CD. We'll be right back!

Part 4

Oprah : Well Celine's fans, her new CD Taking Chances is in store tomorrow and here She is to sing her new single. Taking Chances.

Opah : Next Celine help us pull off a giant surprise for somebody in our studio audince. This is a good ane you know, I love surprise.

Oprah : Celine helped us set up one final fans surprise last night during rehearsal and let me tell you, it's a doozy. Take a look!

Oprah : Let's find out where Celine took a seat are you all ready, Ok dim the studio lights, please! dim the lights, please!. Okay, if the spotlight lands on you, you've hit the jack pot.

Celine : No, you gave me all that pressure to China to 1 C.

Oprah : Yes...Okay here go all right! They love drama, all right do it already!

Oprah : Relation you and friends are flying to Vegas staying Caesar's Palace and we'll be there when Celine takes her final bow.

Celine Dion's new CD, it's called Taking Chances as in store tomorrow as we said goodbye, Celine is going to sing what should it be another huge hit alone. Take it away!

Oprah : Wow...Thank you so much, bye every body!
