

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

The writer concludes from analyzing where the researcher uses four types of directive speech act and the form of directive speech act in "How To Train Your Dragon: The Hidden World" movie. movie script. Directive speech act often used in the movie above command, suggestion, request and warning. In this movie, the directive speech act temporary used by the main character is command. There is 44% utterances of command. It draws the movie which shows the leadership story. The writer can conclude using the form of directive speech act "imperative, declarative and interrogative" the directive act in this movie script is to show that a leader has power to control a particular group, to warn the people, to request something and the important thing is to command a particular group.

B. Suggestion

Through this paper, the writer suggests that the kinds of illocutionary act exactly directive act is able to be one of the topics for future research studies, especially for English Language department students in State Islamic Institute (IAIN) Of Kediri Furthermore, the term speech act does not always produce a new division, therefore the writer suggest that it is possible to analyze the meaning in every conversation on movie, speech or daily life.