CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents conclusion and suggestion that are divided from the research findings.

5.1 Conclusion

There are several conclusions drawn from the research problem as follows:

1) students' problems in writing argumentative texts (2) the students' strategies in developing their ideas in writing argumentative texts.

1. The students' problem in writing argumentative text

Based on the findings, the researcher can draw conclusions about the problems faced by the students of SMK Pawiyatan Daha 1 Kediri in writing argumentative texts; students are lack of vocabulary mastery, lack of grammar skills, lack of skills in developing ideas, and lack of motivation to understand a structure.

2. the students' strategies in developing their ideas in writing argumentative text.

Based on the results of the data, there are several strategies used by students in overcoming problems in developing their ideas. The strategy is; free writing, mind mapping, and make a list. This strategy is believed by the students to develop their ideas during learning to write.

Teaching writing a text in English is not easy, especially in the eleventh grade, because they have entered an adult age where they easily feel bored and are not interested in learning to write. This encourages teachers to provide motivation and ways to teach writing to the fullest. Of course, they have some challenges in teaching writing. not only teachers but students also feel the problem and as teachers, they have to solve challenges by choosing the right strategy. The strategy they use aims to improve students' writing skills in an easy and interesting way.

5.2 Suggestion

Having concluded the result of this research, the writer would like to propose some suggestions that hopefully will be useful, especially for as follows:

1. The teacher

It is suggested that the English teacher implement the strategies as an alternative technique in writing subject.

2. Other researcher

For further researcher, the result of this study can be used as an additional reference with different discussion.
