

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSSION AND SUGGESTION

B. Conclusion

This study was out to find out whether the teacher's and student's perceptions, the practice of diary writing and the effect of diary writing the research was conducted in eleventh grade of MAN 5 Jakarta in academic year 2022/202. After had conducted the research, the researcher got result, those are follows:

1. The teacher's and student's perceptions

The English teacher diary writing method because diary writing is an easy writing exercise. Then the teacher thought and the student's thoughts about diary writing is Diary writing is an individual work that may be given to the learner without any strain. Also, the diary writing is a fun and a helpful activity. Diary writing also help the students to improve students writing ability and find a new vocabulary. From the teacher and student's opinion about diary writing are: before the students do the diary writing activity, they have a low interest to write because they have a limited vocabulary. but after the diary writing activity, the students be able to write and arrange the sentences. they may free to write anything what they thoughts and they can express their emotion there. It is making a student's interest to write their feelings in diary writing book and they can enjoy the learning method.

2. The practice of Diary Writing

In practice a Diary Writing the students apply self-study every day to work on diary writing, they will work on it individually outside of EFL Class hours, because during EFL Class hours students will be asked to collect the diaries they have filled out. then the way they practice writing usually starts from finding a comfortable place, setting the right time after that they can only start practicing writing diaries. when they finished writing they checked their writing again. after that they immediately packed it to be ready to be collected when the EFL Class started.

3. The effect of Diary Writing

Diary Writing Method gives positive Effect to students in improving their writing skill. This is because through Diary Writing Method can helping the students to improve writing ability, helping the students for finding a new vocabulary and by using the diary writing method they become more confident to use English.

B. Suggestion

1. For the teacher

- a. The teacher should add diary writing method to lesson plan. Because this method will make students interest in teaching text more increasing.
- b. The teacher should give a teacher's note in every student's diary writing books to make students more spirit in teaching writing.

- c. The teacher should give motivation to the students during the teaching and learning process.

2. For the students

For students, it is suggestion to improve their writing ability. By implementing diary writing method. The students could improve their writing skill because this technique give the students ideas to free writing, and use the vocabulary that make familiar with the work. So, students will have a habit to write and use the words in classroom activity even in outside classroom activity.

3. For the other researcher

- a. The researcher can apply this method in others field.
- b. The researcher can use it as a reference for other studies.