1	Susie : Good morning Lady Thatcher. Are you alright? How are you feeling? Margaret : I'm fine, thank you Susie.	00:05:56 – 00:06:03

2	News reader 1	: at ten to three this morning an
		explosion extensively damaged the	00:12:43 –
		Grand Hotel in Brighton, scene of the	00:13:02
		Conservation Party conference.
	News reader 2	: where the prime minister and a
		number of her cabinet were staying.
		They escaped unhurt-
	News reader 3	: Five people have died, many others
		are injured, some critically. The IRA
		have claimed responsibility.
3	Margaret	: What I do think is that a man should	00:17:12 –
		be encouraged to stand on his own two	00:17:42
		feet. Yes we help people of course we
		help people. But for those that can do,
		they must just get up and do. And if
		something's wrong, they shouldn't just
		whine about it, they should get in there
		and DO something about it, change
		things.
	Portly Host	: With all due respect, Miss Roberts,
		what may have served in Grantham-
	Margaret	: Can serve very well for the people of
		Dartford too.
	Male Guest	: Really?
	Margaret	: I know much more than those who
		have never lived on a limited income.
		Just like the man or woman on the
		street, when I am short one week, I
		have to make economies the next.
4	Female guest	: I heard you speak at conference in	00:19:51 –
		1983 in Brighton just after the IRA	00:20:34
		bombed the Grand Hotel. You were
		remarkable. I hope you appreciate
		what an inspiration you have been for
		women like myself.

	Margaret	: it is used to be trying to do something. Now it's about trying to be someone.
	Female guest	: well anyway, I... thank you.
	Margaret	: good night to you.
	Carol	: greet so see you, thank you very much for coming
	Male guest	: ok. Thank you. It was lovely, absolutely lovely. And I'm so pleased to see your mother looking so well.
5	Radio Announcer:	Twenty-four-year-old Miss Margaret Roberts lost her bid to win a seat in Parliament today, but she has put new life into the Dartford Conservative Association. Winning candidate Mr Dodds had better watch out, this bright young woman is on his tail.	00:24:17 – 00:24:30
6	Speaker	: The Right Honourable Lady the Secretary of State for Education.	00:33:00 –
	Margaret	: The right honourable gentleman knows that we have no choice but to shut down the schools!	00:34:30
	Female guest	: well anyway, I... thank you.
	Margaret	: Because his union paymasters have called a strike deliberately to cripple our economy. Teachers cannot teach when there is no heating, no lighting in their classrooms. And I ask the honourable gentleman, whose fault is that?
	Shadow Minister	: Methinks the Right Honourable lady doth screech to much. If she wants us to take her seriously she must learn to calm down!
	Margaret	: If the right honorable gentleman could perhaps attend more closely to

		what I am saying, rather than how I am saying it, he may receive a valuable education in spite of himself!
	Shadow Minister	: Why has this Conservative government failed? Why has it forced so many in the public sector into taking strike action to save their own jobs?
7	Heath	: So these power cuts will continue unless we can reach a compromise. ..The miners are asking for a 35% increase in wages. Obviously we can't go anywhere near that. The unions are not our enemies and never have been. We want - and have always wanted - the broadest consensus... ..I'm sure we are all in agreement that we must do nothing for the moment that will further inflame the current situation.	00:35:07 – 00:35:57
	Minister 1	: Hear hear, Prime Minister
	Heath	: - the fact of the matter is, it's absolutely crucial that we are seen by the public to be acting as conciliators and not aggressors. Yes, Education Secretary
	Margaret	: yes ..Prime Minister, with the Miners' leader calling today for the army to mutiny in support of the strikes, this seems the wrong time for conciliation.
8	Alfred	: We on this island are strong. We're self-reliant. Napoleon called us a nation of shopkeepers. ...He meant it as an insult but to me it's a compliment. That's why he couldn't	00:36:24 – 00:37:05

beat us, and that's why Hitler can't beat us.

...We Conservatives believe in giving people the freedom and opportunity to fulfil their own potential, especially the young. There's no good in pretending we're all equal, we're not all the same, never have been, never will be. We should encourage our children to aspire to achieve more than we have, for our children today will be the leaders of tomorrow.

9	Neave	: Respectfully, Margaret, I disagree. If you want to change this party, lead it. If you want to change the country, lead it. What we're talking about here today is surface. What's crucial is that you hold your course, and stay true to who you are. Never be anything other than yourself.	00:43:22 – 00:44:08
	Reece	: Leave us to do the best
	Margaret	: Gentlemen, I am in your hands. I may be persuaded to surrender the hat. But the pearls were a gift from my husband on the birth of our twins and they are absolutely non-negotiable.

10	Margaret	: The Trade Union Movement was founded to protect workers. Now it persecutes them. It stops them from working. It is killing jobs and it is bringing this country to its knees. I say enough. It's time to get up. It's time to go to work. It's time to put the Great back into Great Britain!	00:45:30 – 00:45:53
----	-----------------	--	------------------------

11	News Reader	: The Irish National Liberation Army has claimed responsibility for the death of Airey Neave, Margaret Thatcher's spokesman on Northern Ireland.	00:47:14 – 00:47:22
12	Margaret	: Now, as the test draws near, I ask your help. That together we can shake off the shackles of socialism and restore to greatness this country that we love so much. And the only way is for the Conservative Party to win!	00:47:47 – 00:48:06
13	News Reader 1	: It's Friday the 4th of May, an historic day for Britain, a Conservative government led by Mrs. Thatcher is set to lead -	00:48:35 – 00:48:57
	News Reader 2	: Mrs Ghandi in India, but never in the West has there been a woman Prime Minister.
	News Reader 3	: The place that she has secured in British history, as the first woman ever to be invited to form a government. The bonus of one of the most famous addresses in the world, Number 10 Downing Street.
14	Margaret	: I should just like to say that I take very seriously the trust the British people placed in me today, and I will work hard every day to live up to that responsibility. And now, I should like to share with you a prayer of St Francis of Assisi: Where there is discord may we bring harmony... Where there is error may we bring truth... Where there is doubt may we	00:49:11 – 00:49:54

		bring faith... Where there is despair may we bring hope..
15	BBC Voiceover 1	: Baroness Thatcher made an apparently routine visit to her doctor today. Although rarely seen in public, Lady Thatcher, the longest serving Prime Minister of the twentieth century, remains a controversial figure.	00:56:05 – 00:56:33
	BBC Voiceover 2	: Almost lovingly dubbed by the Soviets The Iron Lady, she's also credited, with her friend Ronald Reagan, with a decisive role in the ending of the Cold War. Her supporters claim she transformed the British economy and reversed the country's post-war decline. Her detractors blame her savage public spending cuts and sweeping privatization of -
16	TV Journalist	: We are now one split nation, with a huge gulf dividing the employed from the unemployed.	01:02:47 – 00:02:59
	Union Activist	: The Thatcher plan is to break the Trade Union movement.
17	News Reader	: The Falkland islands, the British Colony in the South Atlantic, has fallen. Argentina claims its marines went ashore this morning as a spearhead to capture key targets, including the capital, Port Stanley.	01:08:52 – 01:09:03
18	General Haig	: So you are proposing to go to war over these Islands. They're thousands of miles away, a handful of citizens,	00:11:05 – 01:12:14 politically and economically... insignificant, if you'll excuse me -

Margaret : Just like Hawaii, I imagine.

General Haig : I'm sorry?

Margaret : 1941, when Japan attacked Pearl Harbour. Did America go cap in hand and ask Tojo for a peaceful negotiation of terms? Did she turn her back on her own citizens there because the islands were thousands of miles from mainland United States? No, no, no! We will stand on principle or we shall not stand at all.

General Haig : But Margaret with all due respect when one has been to war....

Margaret : With all due respect sir, I have done battle every single day of my life, and many men have underestimated me before. This lot seem bound to do the same but they will rue the day.

19 Naval Attache 1 : The Argentinian ship the General Belgrano and her escorts are pursuing course 273 degrees toward the Argentinian mainland. We are tracking it with our submarine HMS Conqueror. 01:12:33 – 01:13:43

Margaret : Is this ship a threat?

Admiral Fieldhouse : Both of these ships are carrying Exocet missiles, Prime Minister. Just yesterday they launched- then aborted- an attack inside the exclusion zone. There is a risk they could try it again.

	Francis Pym	: The Belgrano is sailing directly away from the islands. Can it really be regarded as a threat ?
	Admiral Fieldhouse	: She's been changing course continually. There's a strong possibility that they're attempting a pincer movement on our carrier group. ... I advise that we engage them: hit the Belgrano as a warning to the others. Send them all back to port.
	Francis Pym	: It'll play badly internationally. We'll be seen as aggressors.
	John Nott	: This will be an escalation, Prime Minister.
	Leach	: If there is to be an escalation, it's better that we start it.
	Minister	: It is steaming away, Prime Minister.
	Margaret	: Sink it.
20	TV Journalist	: ... HMS Sheffield, a Type 42 destroyer, was attacked and hit late this afternoon by an Argentine missile... ...it is seen as a retaliation for the sinking of the General Belgrano, in which over 300 Argentinian sailors died...	01:13:59 – 00:14:12
21	John Nott	: Prime Minister- Latest casualty figures from the Sheffield.	01:14:14 – 00:14:32
	Margaret	: I must write to them.
	John Nott	: Prime Minister?
	Margaret	: The families. I must write to them...

22	Margaret Pym	: Foreign Secretary... : I've just been briefed by Admiral Fieldhouse. He told me bluntly that if the Argentinians are prepared and willing to risk their aircraft, they have enough missiles to cripple most of our fleet.	01:14:43 – 00:15:31
	John Nott	: President Reagan and President Bellaunde of Peru have some new proposals for the peace plan -
	Margaret	: The peace plan? There will be no appeasement. This is a war. A war they started and by God, we will finish. Shall I tell you what I'm going to write to every single one of these families, these heartbroken families? I am going to tell them that no British soldier will die in vain for the Falklands.
23	Radio	: From their new positions, our forces can see large numbers of Argentine soldiers retreating and streaming back into Port Stanley. Our forces are moving forward to exploit their success.	01:16:00 – 00:16:13
24	Margaret	: We congratulate the men and women of the armed Forces for their skill, bravery and loyalty to this country. .. We were faced with an act of unprovoked aggression and we responded as we have responded in times past: with unity, strength and courage, sure in the knowledge that though much is sacrificed, in the end, right will prevail over wrong.	01:16:59 – 01:18:09

		.. And I put it to the Honourable Member opposite that this is not a day for him to carp, find fault, demand inquiries- they will happen I can assure him of that for we have nothing to hide- no, this is a day to put difference aside, hold one's head high and take pride in being British.
25	Howe	: I have done what I believe to be right for my party and my country. The time has come for others to consider their own response to the tragic conflict of loyalties with which I have myself wrestled for perhaps too long.	01:25:25 – 01:25:34
26	Heseltin on TV	: I'm here to announce my decision to put my name forward as leader of the Conservative party. I have nothing but admiration for our Prime Minister, Margaret Thatcher, but I believe our party and our country need a new leader.	01:25:53 – 01:26:12
27	News Reader 1	: Mrs Thatcher has failed to win enough votes to secure an outright win in the leadership contest and must now decide whether to put her name forward for the second round.	01:27:26 – 01:27:44
	News Reader 2	: As Mrs Thatcher leaves Paris for London to make a last ditch attempt to pull together support for her leadership, the ship may have sailed.

1	Man behind the counter: One forty-nine please.
	Margaret : How much is the milk?	00:01:37 –
	Man behind the counter: Forty-nine pence.	00:01:52
	Thank you.
2	Margaret : Too much. Much too much butter.
	Denis : I like butter.	00:02:49 –
	Margaret : Milk's gone up.	00:03:01
	...49p a pint.
	Denis : Good grief! We'll have to economise. I suppose we could always sell the car. Or take in paying guests!
3	Carol : I hear you went out today...You mustn't go out on your own Mummy. We've talked about that.	00:13:48 – 00:14:01
	Margaret : There was no milk.
	Carol : Call Robert he'll get it for you if June's not up-
	Margaret : I am not for the knackers yet.
4	Carol : It's nearly all familiar faces, William, Michael and his lovely wife-	00:15:21 –
	Margaret : Jacqueline.	00:15:48
	Carol : And then there's Peter, James R and James T and that very nice man-
	Margaret : yes-
	Carol : - we met last year.
	Margaret : Yes I remember-
	Carol : I think he's bringing his new lady friend just to mix it up a bit. We're rather short on women - but I'm sure we'll manage-
	Margaret : I've always preferred the company of men-

	Carol	: Ma?
5	Portly host	: ...attlee has his sights set on the steel industry, you mark my words.	00:16:21 –
	Grey suited man	: They'll be nationalizing the bloody air next..	00:16:43
	Male guest	: Yes, hold your breath, sir, that's government property!
	Portly host	: So was your father a political man, too, Miss Roberts?
	Margaret	: Oh, yes, to his core. And Mayor of Grantham.
	Portly host	: And a grocer as well!
	Margaret	: yes.
6	Carol	: I swear, it's all gone completely out of my head. My driving instructor thinks I should pass but I feel as if I've hardly had any lessons. Ridiculous isn't it? Maybe third time lucky.	00:37:16 – 00:37:59
	Margaret	: Right. The only thing you should remember is that everyone else is either reckless or inept. And often both. ..One must be brave if one is to take the wheel
	Carol	: Right-o.
	Margaret	: Move over... Move to your right a little bit...
	Carol	: But if I move to the right aren't I on the wrong side of the road?
	Margaret	: Carol!
	Carol	: Well he's in the way!
	Margaret	: To the right. Move to the right! ..So sorry! Terribly sorry!
	Carol	: Hey, look at me, driving!

7	Denis	: Are you saying you want to be Prime Minister?	00:38:41 –
	Margaret	: What I'm saying is that someone must force the point, say the unsayable. None of these men have the guts.	00:39:21
	Denis	: The Prime Minister has been very loyal to you, MT.
	Margaret	: But he's weak, and he's weakened the party. One must know when to go ..You're shaking.
	Denis	: I can do it!
	Margaret	: Goodness me! What is the matter with everyone this morning?
	Denis	: I've told you what the matter is. The business is a bit rocky at the moment and the Doctor thinks I need a rest.
	Margaret	: And do you need a rest?
8	Denis	: You're insufferable, Margaret, do you know that?	00:39:47 –
	Margaret	: Denis, you married someone who is committed to public service, you knew that. And it is my duty -	00:40:09
	Denis	: Don't call it duty. It's ambition which has got you this far. Ambition. And the rest of us, me, the children, we can all go to hell.
9	Neave	: Good night Margaret. My money's on the filly to win!	00:46:45 –
	Margaret	: Oh, thanks Airey. Goodnight.	00:46:52
10	Margaret	: I'm perfectly healthy. There's no need for any of this.	00:50:34 –
	Denis	: Just let them look under the bonnet, MT. Check everything is hunky dory.	00:51:08
	Margaret	: Really it's becoming quite tiresome.
	Denis	: What is?

	Margaret	: You. I was on my own for twenty-four years before I met you and I can manage perfectly well without you now. So, will you please go away and stop bothering me.
11	Margaret Denis Margaret Denis Margaret Denis Margaret Denis Margaret	: That was Mark. Not able to come. : Boy's always going AWOL. : Well it costs him a great deal to fly everyone up here. : There you go, making excuses for him. Now look where it's got you. ... Did you know Yul Brynner was a gypsy from Vladivostok? : Yes. He moved to Paris when he was fourteen. He played the King of Siam 4,625 times on the London and Broadway stages. What are you doing? : One likes to make an effort. A snifter? : You're dead, Denis.	01:07:24 – 01:08:05
12	Howe Margaret Howe	: Margaret, the cost of sending 28,000 men and a hundred ships twelve thousand miles, almost to Argentina, will be absolutely crippling. : I don't think we should be worrying about money at this point, Geoffrey. : We can't afford to go to war.	01:10:17 – 01:10:30
13	Carol Margaret Carol	: Mummy- ..My God, Mum. Are you alright? .. Mummy you should have called for help, silly old sausage. Have you not even been in your bed properly? You've done all this? : Yes, all sorted. Finished. : Yes well don't worry about all this. June and I will crack on with it.	01:36:37 – 01:37:12

Margaret	: I was just going to get dressed.
Carol	: ...Shall I call someone, see if anyone can come over and do your hair?
Margaret	: Oh. No, you do it.

	Margaret : no no no no. they grey.	00:04:35 –
	Denis : you sure?	00:04:51
	Margaret : yes ...Definitely the grey
	Denis : righty ho. Boss knows the best.
2	Carol : now ma, we are going long or just below the knee tonight?	00:13:24 –
	Margaret : oh, below the knee I should think.	00:13:29
3	Michael : So, Margaret, how would you have dealt with this if you'd been Prime Minister?	00:18:53 – 00:19:25
	Margaret : Where?
	Carol : The bombings, mummy. Today? We were just talking about them?
	Margaret : No, uhm, yes - we have always lived alongside evil. But it has never been so patient, so avid for carnage, so eager to carry innocents with it into oblivion.
	Male Guest : So, would you-
	Margaret : No, uhm, yes - we have always lived alongside evil. But it has never been so patient, so avid for carnage, so eager to carry innocents with it into oblivion.

4	Interviewer	: Mrs Thatcher I understand you recently visited the United States of America.	00:40:37 – 00:40:47
		... What was it you took away from that visit which may be of value here in Great Britain?
	Margaret	: Oh that's rather easy to answer, actually. They are unafraid of success.
5	Reece	: Well er...For a start, that hat has got to go. And the pearls. In fact I think all hats may have to go. You look and sound like a privileged Conservative wife and we've already got her vote. You've got lovely hair but we need to do something with it - to make it more-	00:41:18 – 00:42:02
	Airey neave	: Important
	Reece	: Yes. Give it more impact. But the main thing is your voice. Its too high. It has no authority.
	Airey neave	: Methinks the Lady doth screech too much
	Reece	: People don't want to be harangued by a woman or hectored. Persuaded yes. That 'oh yes' at the end of the interview, that's authoritative, that's the voice of a leader.
6	Margaret	: It's all very well to talk about changing my voice, Mr Reece, but for some of my colleagues to imagine me as their leader would be like imagining, I don't know, being led into battle by their chambermaid. It's my background, and my sex. No matter how I've tried, and I have tried, to fit in, I will never be truly one of them.	00:42:04 – 00:43:22

Reece : If I may say so - I think that's your trump card. You're flying in the face of everything the Tories have been thus far. It's really very exciting. One simply has to maximise your appeal, bring out all your qualities and make you look, and sound, like the leader that you could be.

Neave : You've got it in you to go the whole distance.

Margaret : Prime Minister?! Oh no. Oh no no no. In Britain? There will be no female Prime Minister here, not in my lifetime. No. And I told Airey, I don't expect to win the leadership, but I am going to run. Just to shake up the party.

7 Doctor : Are you noticing night sweats? 00:51:10 –

Margaret : no 00:51:57

Doctor : hallucinations?

Margaret : no

Doctor : sleep?

Margaret : yes, I sleep. Four, five hours a night.

Doctor : so, you wake early?

Margaret : and stay up late. I always have.

Doctor : We just want to keep abreast of it.

Margaret : Yes. Of course.

Doctor : Grief is a very natural state.

Margaret : My husband has been gone for years. Cancer.

Doctor : Carol says you've decided to let his things go. Probably a good thing.

Margaret : Yes. It was my idea. To Oxfam. Perfectly good stuff. People can use these things.

8	Heseltine	: May we have a word, Prime Minister?	00:59:30 –
	Margaret	: Yes, but in order to arrive at the palace on time, Geoffrey and I are will be walking out of that door in 15 minutes. As you can see –	01:00:08
	Heseltine	: I know you're running late Margaret, but we have to address this situation in light of tomorrow's blistering press coverage. Blistering! The knives are out. Your draft budget's been leaked, Geoffrey, they are baying for our blood!
	Howe	: Michael we can't possibly buckle at the first sign of difficulty.
	Heseltine	: No one is saying we have to buckle.
	Prior	: But is this really the time to make these spending cuts in the middle of one of the deepest recessions this country has ever experienced?
	Heseltine	: We need a plan of action, Margaret.
	Pym	: Absolutely. A strategy.
Gilmour	: We must be armed.
Prior	: agreed.
9	Howe	: You can't close down a discussion because it's not what you wish to hear.	01:02:08 –
	Margaret	: I don't expect everyone just to sit there and agree with me. But what kind of leader am I if I don't try to get my own way - to do what I know to be right.	01:02:29
	Howe	: Yes. But Margaret, one must be careful of testing one's colleagues' loyalty too far.
10	Margaret	: Gentlemen, the Argentinian Junta - which is a fascist gang - has invaded our sovereign territory. This cannot be	01:09:04 – 01:09:39

tolerated. May I make plain my negotiating position. I will not negotiate with criminals or thugs. The Falkland islands belong to Britain, and I want them back. Gentlemen, I need you to tell me today if that is possible.

Admiral Leach : Possible... just, Prime Minister. We can have a Task Force ready to sail in forty-eight hours.

	Carol	: rightly-ho. Night night, Ma. Sleep well.
	Margaret	: good night, Dear.
5	Denis	: You are a grocer's daughter-	00:25:19 –
	Margaret	: -And proud of being-	00:26:51
	Denis	: - in their eyes. A single grocer's daughter. But if you were to become the wife of a moderately successful businessman- ..You'd get to parliament, and I'd get to be the happiest man in- in wherever they select you. ...Margaret, will you marry me? ...well ?
	Margaret	: yes. Yes!
	Denis	: what?
	Margaret	: I love you so much but...I will never be one of those women Denis - who stays silent and pretty on the arm of her husband. Or remote and alone in the kitchen doing the washing up for that matter.
	Denis	: We'll get a help for that.
	Margaret	: No - one's life must matter, Denis. Beyond the cooking and the cleaning and the children, one's life must mean more than that - I cannot die washing up a tea cup. ...I mean it Denis, say you understand.
	Denis	: That's why I want to marry you, my dear.
6	Denis	: I know you can hear me, sweetheart, so there's no use pretending you can't.	00:54:14 – 00:54:19

7	Denis	: Come on love, get to bed. I don't know why you do this to yourself every year, it's a speech at conference, not the Magna Carta!	01:04:36 – 01:04:54
	Denis	: Time to call it a day, darling. It's ten to three, for God's sake.
	Margaret	: I know, I'm coming DT. Nearly there
	(On the phone)
8	Margaret	: Mark?... Hello darling... No, I'm fine... I'm very well...	01:05:52 – 01:06:53
	Margaret	: How is... How's... Sarah?... And the children..?
	Margaret	: ...Oh... You can't... That's a pity... I was hoping to see you... No really darling... That's fine... Of course... another time... Lovely Darling... Can't wait... Yes...
9	Margaret	: Denis? Denis? Here's your bag. You're all packed, sorted. (seeing he is walking away in his socks) Denis wait...Where are your shoes? You can't go without shoes! Not yet.	01:35:17 – 01:35:56
	Denis	: Steady.
	Margaret	: Yes...Steady...
	Denis	: Steady the buffs -
	Margaret	: Steady...Steady the buffs...
	Margaret	: NO...Not yet...Denis. Wait...I said I don't want you to go yet. Denis...Please...No...Not...Don't. ..NO...I don't...I don't want to be on my own.

Denis : You're going to be fine on your own, love.
(beat) You always have been.
