CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

This chapter describes the conclusion and suggestion of the study. The researcher draws some conclusion and suggestion for concerning the study. There are concerns about the characters' needs, the problems, and the efforts of Iwan Setyawan to get success abroad in novel 9 Summers 10 Autumns.

A. Conclusions

From the previous data display, the researcher can draw some of the conclusion, those are:

1. Iwan's characters' needs to get success abroad

From this study, the researcher can conclude that Iwan has several characters' need to get success abroad. They are smart, persistence or never give up, hard worker, and diligent. That character brings him to get success in the future. Iwan is smart because he always get academic achievement when he was in school years. Iwan is persistence and never give to reach what he wants. He also hard worker since he was a kid. He does not make difficulties for his parents. Iwan is also diligent students because he always studies everyday without command from his parents.

2. Problems faced by Iwan to get success abroad

From this research, the researcher can conclude that Iwan has several problem faced by him to get success abroad. That are he comes from modest family and he is often homesick. Actually, modest family is not a problem but if Iwan comes from rich family, he will easily to get what he wants to. Iwan also really loves his family. He never lives apart from his family. So, he will really miss his family when he lives apart from his family. This is homesick. According to Christopher A Thurber and Edward A Walton in their journal that homesickness is the distress or impairment caused by an actual or anticipated separation from home.<sup>1</sup> His homesick is one of his problems to get his success.

3. The efforts of Iwan to get success abroad.

From this research, the researcher can conclude that Iwan has several efforts to get success abroad. Those are studying hard, taking action, work hard, and connecting with others. A success is not getting off hand. Everyone needs effort and struggle to get their success. Everyone normally believes that putting out a certain amount of physical effort will produce a commensurate result. It is that if people give in to life and make the necessary full effort, expending all of our energies, life will take over and complete the work in no time.
