This chapter is divided into two parts. They are conclusion and suggestion. The conclusion section presents the research findings related to the research problem. Besides it, this chapter also gives the suggestion for the further research in analyzing the same topic.

A. Conclusion

After analyzed the movie and getting the result, the researcher found several types of educational value. The data were classified into various types of educational value and describe how the data presented in the movie, based on theory of Elmubarok. The types of educational value divided into two types, value of being and value of giving. Value of being consist of honesty, brave, peace, self decipline and moderation, confidence and potential, and purity. Meanwhile, value of giving consists of loyalty, respect, love and affection, sensibility and not selfishness, kind and friendly, fair and humanist.

As the result, in types of educational value in the movie, we can find some examples of dialogue shown educational values found on Moana movie. The value can be presented in educational value depend on people itself how they define it. We have to know that there are 25 data which had been found by the researcher, they are Honesty, brave, confidence and potential, purity include on the value of being. Also loyalty, respect, love and affection, kind and friendly include on the value of giving. So, The educational value that found in this movie are honesty that showed 2 times, brave that showed 4 times, confidence and potential that showed 6 times, purity that showed 2 times, loyalty that showed 1 times, respect that showed 4 times, love and affection that showed 3 times, kind and friendly that showed 3 times. These values are conveyed through scenes and characters who play a role in the Moana movie.

The Disney moana movie deserves appreciation because it offers so many educational values at a time when those values are starting to be ignored in the world of cinema. Moreover, animated films dedicated to children, should contain good values, not values violence or other bad things.

In the world of education, there are many ways that are used to deliver education itself. One way that can be used is to look at literary works. Film is one of the literary works that can be used to convey education. Moana movie is one example of a film that can be used in the learning process. In this movie there are some educational values that can be taken to be applied in the world of education. What's interesting in this movie is that apart from no romantic scenes, this movie upholds feminism. It is proven that women can do anything, including doing work that is usually done by men, as long as they try and work hard. With this search, it is hoped that learning can be more fun because movie are not only an interesting learning medium but can also introduce the community to educational values.

B. Suggestion

Moana movie is an interesting movie. There are many aspects that can we found in this movie if we can learn well. Based on the result of the research and considering the previous conclusion, the researcher would like to provide some suggestions as important consideration for the readers, the teacher, and the further researcher. The suggestion is pointed as follows:

1. The readers

The readers who want to obtain knowledge about educational values in the utterance of someone especially the utterance of characters in the movie, the researcher hope that this research can help the readers in finding the answer which come to their mind. The researcher thinks that learning new language is important to face the modern era. There are many media that can be used to improve our ability in learning new languages. One of them is a movie. Movie can be used as a medium of learning language because movie is not only interesting but also contains many messages and educational values.

Beside that if parents can selective with the movie, parents can get many advantages especially to educate the children. Because, in the movie we can guide the children about attitude, they have to learn how to different bad action and good action. Usually watching the movie can give our inspiration, suggestion, and motivation in the life. Education is very important in someone's life. So, educational value should be introduced to the children early in the family.
