DEDICATION

Praise and gratitude Alhamdulillah always goes to Allah SWT, sholawat, and greetings to our Prophet Muhammad SAW. Thank you for all the blessings, and ridho that accompanies every step that I take, thank you for all the healthy blessings that have been given both physically and spiritually. Praise be to all that has been given so that with Allah's permission and help I can finish this thesis. Thus, I will dedicate this thesis to:

1. My beloved mother, Mrs. Musinem, who lives peacefully, in Allah's SWT heaven. Thank you for everything that has been poured, thank you for teaching me how to be a strong woman, patient, persistent, and disciplined in dealing with various things. Thank you for giving me the strength and fortitude to continue to live a better life.
2. My beloved father, Mr. Warsi. Thank you for all the support given both moral and material. Thank you for teaching me the meaning of patience, and doing good to others. Thank you for all the prayers that are always said so that I get the strength and enthusiasm to complete this thesis.
3. My beloved brother, my older brother M. Ridwan, along with my sister-in-law Mulyana and my older sister Siti Nurul Mudawamah and my brother-in-law Saifudin Zuhri. Thank you for supporting me in many ways, and thank you for all the prayers and encouragement given while I was studying, may Allah always make your small family full of blessings and happiness.
4. My beloved teachers. Thank you for every knowledge given to me. To My beloved “unbiological” mother Mrs. Nur Utami Afifah as my Bu nyai, thank you for all the support and prayers that have always been given to me. To all of my lecturers of TBI in general who have imparted their knowledge to me, while I was studying at IAIN Kediri. Especially to my beloved supervising lecturers Mr. Muhyidin and Mrs. Suci, thank you for all the prayers and guidance given, so this thesis can be completed properly. May Allah always give goodness in every knowledge that you all give to me.

5. My beloved “unbiological” older sisters, Ika Yulianing Rias, and Dewi Ikrimah. Thank you for sharing joys and sorrows together, thank you for all the prayers and enthusiasm that are always given to one another in every up and down of the lecture process, and while working on the thesis. May we always be together and be facilitated in every way.
6. My beloved friends and students at MADIN Al-Hikmah, RBB Semangat, and Privat. Thank you for all the prayers and support that is always given to me.
7. My dearest friends, all of the students of TBI IAIN Kediri of 2019 in general, thank you for various ideas and for accompanying me during my studies. Also, my dearest friends in the same supervisors, Shela, Niha, Mimbar, and Gita, thank you for sharing enthusiasm and ideas with each other while working on this thesis.
8. My beloved teacher Mrs. Naning Rahmawati an English teacher at SMAN 4 Kota Kediri who has been willing to help me in finding the data, also as the second rater, thank you for all your prayers and support for me, may Allah always give goodness to you too. Then, for the students in grades X-8 and X-9 who have agreed to be the subject of my study, thank you for the prayers and enthusiasm that you gave while I was with you, may Allah always make it easy for you to seek knowledge in the future.
9. The good people who I cannot mention one by one, thank you for all the prayers and motivation that are always given. May Allah gives the same good thing as you give to me.
10. Lastly for myself, thank you for always being strong in various ways, you are great for going through various processes of life until this moment, once again thank you for always accompanying yourself, may Allah always arrange your future.

ABSTRACT

Nurfadillah, Anisa. (2023). The Correlation Between Students' Self Efficacy and Speaking Ability at SMAN 4 Kota Kediri. Thesis, English Education Department, Faculty of Tarbiyah, State Islamic Institute (IAIN) of Kediri. Advisors : (1) Mohammad Muhyidin, M.Pd., and (2) Dewi Nur Suci, S.S., M.Pd.

Keywords : Correlation, Self Efficacy, Speaking Ability

Self-efficacy has an important role for students in learning language. However, speaking is regarded as one of the most important language abilities to master. It has a tremendous influence on how students act, speak, and respond to numerous circumstances and stimuli in their surroundings. Therefore, this study aims to determine whether there is a significant correlation between students' self-efficacy and speaking ability at SMAN 4 Kota Kediri.

This study employed a quantitative method with a correlational design. The research utilized a questionnaire instrument with a Likert scale to measure students' self-efficacy, and a test instrument to measure their speaking ability. The questionnaires and tests were administered to 65 students in grades X-8 and X-9 at SMAN 4 Kota Kediri. The data obtained were analyzed using SPSS 22 and Microsoft Excel. Additionally, the hypothesis of the study was tested using the Pearson product-moment correlation formula.

Based on the finding of this study, a correlation coefficient value of 0.539 was obtained. This means the value of the correlation coefficient is $0.539 > 0.05$. Also, based on the r_{table} it is known that $0.539 > 0.244$ ($\alpha = 5\%$, $N = 65$). In addition, based on the results of the sig. (2. tailed) obtained $0.000 < 0.05$ which means that students' self-efficacy and students' speaking ability have a correlation. Then, it can be said that the alternative hypothesis (H_a) is accepted, and the null hypothesis (H_o) is rejected. This also indicates that the variable (X) of students' self-efficacy and variable (Y) of students' speaking ability have a significant correlation with a moderate degree of correlation, and have a positive relationship. In other words, if the level of self-efficacy of students is higher, it is also expected that the level of students' speaking ability will also be higher. Thus, it can be concluded that students' self-efficacy and speaking abilities at SMAN 4 Kota Kediri have a significant correlation, with a moderate level of correlation.
