

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter discussed about the conclusions of the research that the researcher did. Furthermore, this chapter also contains the suggestions on research for students, English teacher, and also other researchers.

A. Conclusions

In this research, the researcher answered based on research question in the chapter 1 that the contents of textbook about Indonesian values based on Pancasila Student's Profile (Profil Pelajar Pancasila) that explained in the textbook followings are: having faith, fear God, and have noble character, global diversity, mutual cooperation, independent, and creative. In terms of the contents from English textbook, the researcher makes a conclusion from analysis the textbook that English textbook is a good resource study for students because have some of Indonesian values that adopted from Pancasila. In the material of textbook contains some of Indonesian value that can be learnt and practiced by the students to improve their character building based on Profil Pelajar Pancasila programs (P3) which is developed in Merdeka Belajar curriculum.

This textbook showed the Indonesian value through picture, sentences, or material in the textbook. The content gives clearly description and picture to make the students understand how to study Indonesian culture using other language and improve the character building based on the program that used in Merdeka Belajar curriculum. However, all of the contents in this curriculum is related for students to study English and also can learn the culture in every province in Indonesia.

B. Suggestions

Based on the conclusions above, there are several suggestions that the researcher put forward to students, English teacher, and other researchers.

1. To Students: The students should learn about more Indonesian values through study English to improve their knowledge and practice its value in daily life. If they find the difficulties in understanding the text or material, they can ask other friends or discuss with teacher in the class.
2. To English Teacher: For English teacher, it would be better if the teacher used this textbook for students' class 7th at junior high school. Besides the students learn language in English, the students also learn about Indonesian values and knowing of kinds of traditional culture from every province.
3. To Other Researchers: For other researcher who want to conduct the research will the same method or design, they must prepare well to conduct the research, more understand with their research, should know exactly what techniques are used to select and carry out the research. The researcher hopes that this research can help a little to be used for other researcher as a source for their research or other research.
